Ben asked Council to supply feedback on the Canada Winter Games questions. Council discussed concerns regarding the lack of Canada Winter Games committees, such as the Residence Committee. As well as communication between the College and students' regarding what the 2019 year will look like needs to begin as soon as possible. Additional concerns are as followed:

- Displacement on students in Residence (Specifically families and disabled students.)
- Who is responsible for finding alternate housing for students in residence? Will the students be offered moving assistance, transportation, a storage unit or any sort of modest assistance? What about the risk associated with potential damage to the residence during the games?
- Is it a possibility to leave residence vacant for the 2019 year?
- When/Will the students be given notification in the coming years regarding living in residence in 2019?
- The mental stress of compacting the semester, and moving in the middle of a high stress time.
- Accessibility to teaching and learning tools and other services for students during the games.
- What about the students who need access to the food bank during the games?
- Where will the staff and students be able to park?
- As there will still be Apprenticeship students, how will noise be monitored?
- Is it fair that the DSB students may have classes but the main campus students will not during the games?
- Police checks – Some staff members and students may not be allowed on campus depending on the type of police check. Will delivery companies be required to go through the police check?
- How does the delay of exams affect students' ability to get summer jobs or their application to other institutions?
- How will instructors being trilatering their courses? Will there be lessened weight of assignments/midterms in February? Will there be a push for on-line courses?
